

Pickleball Wizard
Chuck Henry

Ever since I was a young boy
I've played that pickle ball
From Stacy down to Hugo
I must have played them all
But I ain't seen nothing like him
On any court at all
That old retired guy
Sure plays a mean pickle ball!

He stands like a statue,
Becoming like a machine
Feeling all the returns
Always playing clean
He plays by intuition,
Always hits the ball
That old retired guy
Sure plays a mean pickle ball!

He's a pickleball wizard
There has got to be a twist
A pickle ball wizard,
S'got such a supple wrist

How do you think he does it? I don't know!
What makes him so good?

He ain't got no distractions
Can't hear those shouts and yells
Don't see the sun a flashin'
Plays by sense of smell
Always gets a replay
Never seen him fall

That old retired guy
Sure plays a mean pickle ball!
